

John Mark Myers

With profound sadness, we announce the passing of John Mark Myers, 30, of Mill Valley, California on October 23, 2021. Named after John Mark, the faithful traveling companion to Jesus and author of the Gospel of Mark, John shared his namesake's empathy and love of family and friends.

Born in Marin on July 6, 1991, John was the son of Claire Miller of San Francisco and Vincent Myers of Worcester, Massachusetts. John grew up in Novato and Mill Valley. John treasured the beach, sunsets, and movies and was an avid skateboarder.

John loved clowning around with his father, and the two were often seen kicking balls over their house and mastering trampoline flips. A talented athlete, John excelled at skateboarding and teaching gymnastics. He had a passion for word play, which made him a gifted storyteller with a facility with languages. He was skilled at conversation and online research.

John is survived by his parents, his brother Andrew Myers of Mill Valley, and his sister Sarah Ruth Moore of Concord, Massachusetts together with her husband Jim and sons, Graham, Arthur and Sebastian. John delighted in gift giving and had a natural eye for beauty. Despite his challenges, John was a ray of sunshine - with his bright flowing mane and warm, empathic nature.

Services will be held on November 4, 2021 at 1 p.m. at the Episcopal Church of Our Saviour, 10 Old Mill Street, Mill Valley.
